MMAF of Indonesia Held a Special Seminar on New Fisheries Policy

Fuzhou, China, September 22, 2020 -- Pingtan Marine Enterprise Ltd. (Nasdaq: PME), (“Pingtan,” or the “Company”) a global fishing company based in the People’s Republic of China (PRC), announced today that the Ministry of Marine Affairs and Fisheries of the Republic of Indonesia (“MMAF”) held a special seminar late last week about its new fisheries policy.

The seminar was held virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic and was chaired by Mr. Miftah Sabri, Special Staff of the Minister of MMAF. Dr. Muhammad Zaini Hanafi, Acting Director General of Capture Fisheries of MMAF also attended the seminar. Dr. Zaini Hanafi shared in the seminar on behalf of MMAF that the Indonesian government is planning to issue new fisheries policy and welcomes Chinese companies to make investment in Indonesia. Mr. Xinrong Zhuo, Pingtan’s Chairman and CEO, who attended the seminar upon invitation, communicated with the attendees that Pingtan has been waiting with anticipation towards the issuance of new fisheries policy by the Indonesian government, and indicated that Pingtan would engage with the Bureau of Fisheries of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs of the People’s Republic of China (“MARA”), to assist pushing forward the renewal of fisheries cooperation between China and Indonesia and promote mutual development of the fisheries sector and economic and trade exchanges in both countries.

Management Comments

Mr. Zhuo commented: “The news of the potential renewal of fisheries cooperation between Indonesia and China is of great significance for Pingtan’s future development. If Indonesia officially implements the new fisheries policy, I believe the fisheries cooperation between China and Indonesia will open a new chapter, and Pingtan will play its due role as a participant in this process and eventually get over from the negative impact of the Indonesian moratorium of 2015. Additionally, Indonesia is a member nation of the ASEAN and one of the countries that have joined the Belt and Road Initiative of China. I hope Pingtan will serve as a good bridge in this process of bi-lateral cooperation renewal and make its contribution to the Belt and Road Initiative.”
